

Field Day on Horticulture Crops.

Horticulture Division is organizing a Field Day on “Improved horticulture varieties of the Institute” on 28th September, 2013. The Field Day is likely to attract wide range of stakeholders including scientist, officers, farmers and NGOs. It will offer an opportunity to create awareness about recently developed/ recommended colocasia and guava varieties for their proper dissemination and acceptance by farmers.