

DISTRICT LEVEL TRAINING PROGRAMME UNDER ATMA CONDUCTED BY KVK WEST SIANG

Basar, the 11th March, 2014

A one day District Level Training Programme under ATMA West Siang on “Baby Corn Production-A Means of Income Generation” for the farmers of West Siang was conducted by KVK West Siang, ICAR Research Complex for NEH Region, A. P. Centre, Basar today the 11th March, 2014 at Farm School which was established on 10th March in the Integrated Farming System (IFS) field of Shri Kenmar Basar, S/O Shri Goken Basar of Gori-I Village. Altogether, 30 participants attended the training where Shri A. Kirankumar Singh, I/C Programme Coordinator presented PowerPoint on “Baby Corn Production-A Means of Income Generation” for the farmers of West Siang district. Smt. Rita Nongthombam, SMS (Plant Breeding) presented PowerPoint on “Quality Seed Production and Management”, Dr. Anup Chandra, Scientist (Entomology) on “Important Insect Pests of Field and Horticultural Crops” followed by Jitendra Kumar, Scientist (Soil Science) on “How to conserve Soil and Their Management Practices”. Hand on demonstrations also conducted on Bordeaux paste preparation and pasting techniques in orange lastly, the farmers were distributed with Baby Corn (HM4) seeds by Shri A. Kirankumar Singh and apprised them of supporting with any technical guidance and critical inputs in time.

