

National Research Centre on Seed Spices, Ajmer celebrated 86th ICAR Foundation Day

16th July 2014, Ajmer

National Research Centre on Seed Spices, Ajmer celebrated 86th ICAR Foundation Day. On this occasion Professor A. P. Singh, Vice Chancellor, Central University of Rajasthan, Ajmer was the Chief Guest and Dr. C.B. Gehna was the Guest of Honour.

On this occasion Dr. Balraj Singh, Director NRCSS, Ajmer made a presentation on “Role of ICAR in agricultural research and development in India”. He emphasized that the Council had touched all horizons of agriculture and allied sectors.

Prof. A. P. Singh addressed the gathering and admired the role of Council in various revolutions on different commodity including prestigious green revolution. He said it is really wonderful achievements and hard work of the scientists and decision makers of Council that after self sufficiency in food grain we are heading towards food security of nation.

(Source: NRCSS, Ajmer)