

Animal Health Camp cum Awareness programme at Lamphel, Imphal, West Manipur

Two Animal Health Camp cum Awareness programme were conducted at Manipur, Imphal west district – one at Manipuri Pony farm, Lamphelpat on 13th -14th March 2012 and other at Mayang Langjing- 15th – 16th March 2012. These programme were funded by National Initiative on Climate Resilient agriculture (NICRA) Project of ICAR RC NEH, Meghalaya and organized by Division of Animal Health of the same institute, in collaboration with Emino Women Multi-industrial Co-operative Society, Uripok. Awareness programme was on Prevention & control of Important Livestock & Zoonotic diseases vis-à-vis Climate Change & Scientific rearing of Livestock. Besides, a total of 470 animals of various species were vaccinated against various livestock & poultry diseases viz. HS, BQ, Ranikhet Disease, Swine fever and Rabies, along with distribution of feeds, feed supplements and various medicines. A total of 280 farmers, Manipuri pony farm, Lamphelpat, having approximately 100 horses, and Ima Langunabi Co-operative milk society, Thangmeiband Sinam leikai were benefited.

Animal Health Camp cum Awareness programme at Lamphel, Imphal West