

NRC for Orchids Observed National Integration Week

19th November 2013, Pakyong

National Research Centre for Orchids, Pakyong observed National Integration week for communal harmony from 19-25th November, 2013.

In his address the Chief Guest, Dr. R.P. Medhi, Director, NRCO urged all staff to live in harmony and stated that being diversified in cast, culture and religion India is being most secular country in the world. He also appealed all staff to donate generously towards the organization so that it may help providing assistance for rehabilitation of the child victims of communal violence.

Earlier, Shri Ajen Lama, Assistant Administrative Officer, NRCO informed that a week long programme will be carried out in observing the National Integration Week, in which Flag Day and fund raising for donation will also be a part of the event.

Shri Ajen Lama also proposed the vote of thanks from.

(Source: NRCO, Pakyong, Sikkim)